Children at Five Schools Meet New Principals

Children attending five elementary schools in the south area will be greeted by new principals when the Los Angeles City Schools begin the 1958-59 year September 15, according to Superintendent of Schools Ellis A. Jarvis.

The new assignments are purely routine and are being made to fill vacancies caused by retirements, leaves of absence, re-assignments, resignations, or the opening of a new school, Superintendent Jarvis stated.

The five principals affected in the south area are but a portion of the citywide total affected. Throughout the district, 92 new principal or vice principal appointments will become effective on September 1 in the 549 schools operated by the Los Angeles system.

Although schools will not open until September 15, principals will report to their schools the day after Labor Day — September 2 — at which time parents can call any of the Los Angeles schools for registration information.

The five local appointments are Bonita Street, 21929 Bonita Street, Torrance, Mrs. Miriam Meyer Teaff, formerly vice principal at 116th Street School; Crestwood Street, 1946 W. Crestwood St., San Pedro, John Foster, formerly vice principal at Del Amo School; Hawaiian Avenue, 540 Hawaiian Avenue, Wilmington, Basil Dean Goforth, formerly vice principal at Manchester Avenue School; Normont, 1001 West 253rd St., Harbor City, Mrs. Elizabeth James Danky, returning from leave of absence; 186th Street, 1581 West 186th Street, Gardena, Evert Emanuel Anderson, formerly vice principal at Denker Avenue School.

Sisterhood Has Board Meeting

New Sisterhood officers of Gardena Valley Jewish Center held their first board meeting recently in the home of their second vice president, Mrs. Arthur Pickus, second vice president.

Mrs. Charles Price, first vice president, reported on the program for the fashion show to be held in the Center October 16.

Announcement was made that tickets are now available to members and non members, for the High Holy Day services, September 15, 16, and 24. Next regular Sisterhood meeting will be held August 19, at which time Rabbi and Mrs. Henry Kraus will be guests of honor.

Rabbi Kraus conducts Friday night services each week at 8:30 p.m. and Sunday morning services at 10 a.m.

The issuance of International driving licenses has jumped 70 per cent this year according to the Automobile Club of Southern California's International Travel Department. There were some 30,000 requests for International driving licenses during the first four months of 1958.
